

Ghost by James Swallow

5 Stars

3rd nerve-wrecking thriller in the Marc Dane series

Marc Dane returned in the new novel, tackling the cyber-terrorism before the world plunged into the new war. He is also known as the 21st century 007.

Dane investigated the murder in Malta with Kara Wei and uncovered the 'darknet' plotting to hack the world web, i.e., the hackers threatened to switch off the power grids in some nations, paralysing everything – transports, banking and hospitals. They would cause mass murders of millions.

“Madrigal” was the leader of the cyber terrorists and Solomon (Marc and Kara’s big boss) tasked his team to prevent Madrigal.

The plot was to bring into the world war, betrayal, conspiracies and corruption.

This book made me hold my breath and bite my nails. I look forward to the next novel by James Swallow.
